almost massive in impact. Few people, in relation to size, inside. Has a technical feel. Small rooms predominating. ~~Has a technical feel.~~ Ladders and railings on roof; also other objects which seem to be 'instruments'. Sense of a large regularly concentric 'patterned' object which forms part of the outside wall; large, flat black on the inside. A tingling/prickly sensation is associated with this 'pattern' but may or may not be always present. It may be active or passive, but fulfills an assigned purpose even when passive.
